

To contradict certain talk and to put the consuming public in possession of the truth, we say in plain words that no one in this town can sell as good coffee as Arbuckles' Ariosa for as little money.

Misbranded and make-believe Mocha and Java, or coffee sold loose out of a bag or a bin, is not as good value for the money, nor can it be sold at as narrow profit, nor reach the consumer under as favorable conditions.

When you buy Arbuckles' Ariosa Coffee you get more than 16 net ozs. of straight, wholesome Brazilian coffee from the largest coffee firm in the world, with that firm's direct assurance that they are giving you the best coffee in the world for the money.

At Huntsville.

Dr. Everett Gill was billed to address the dries at the opera house Friday night. The wet leaders sent to Moberly, St. Louis and Kansas City for negro orators, hired the colored band and organized for a big demonstration and flow of oratory for the same hour. About the time Dr. Gill was to commence speaking a mob of yelling negroes, led by some whites, "opened out" in the court house. The dries took it as a move to interfere with their meeting. "Prominent" negro speakers were announced from the court house window who would address the voters. Dry leaders concluded to adjourn their meeting and hear what the wets had to say. They, including about 50 white women, went to the court room and took front seats. This move completely nonplussed the wet leaders and the foreign negro orators would not make their appearance. For hours the negro band played "Marching through Georgia" and other pieces. A howling mob was in the court house and pandemonium reigned, but the dries and white women held their seats. The "colonel" commanding the colored, seeing that the dries were going to stay with them, put up "Professor" Smith, colored, as the first "orator" who made an ignorant harangue for about thirty minutes; to give the band time to rest. The object of the meeting became apparent but the dries stayed with them nevertheless. After much more band playing and howls from the mob, negro speakers from out of town were put up to tell the crowd how to vote. The crowd was harangued until about 2 o'clock in the morning, but the dries froze the wets out at their own game, but it was a very hot and "odoriferous" freeze out. We became disgusted at the start and did not take in the "show" but those dries that did witness it say it beat anything they ever saw and hoped they would never see another like it. — Huntsville Herald.

Huntsville went wet by two votes.

The States and the Union.

The Chicago platform is silent upon an issue which President Roosevelt has made one of the most important of the year. By the attacks made in his messages and speeches upon the rights and powers of the States, by his assumption that the Federal Government is the only agency of administration which can accomplish great reforms in behalf of the public good, he has squarely raised the question whether this country is to go on as a Federal Republic or is to become a centralized autocracy.

The Republican Convention has endorsed the Republican administration, and the Republican candidate for the Presidency has adopted its views as his own without reservation. There can be no doubt of the answer which the National Democracy will make to this revolutionary propaganda.

The Denver convention can do no less than to declare for the preservation of the rights of the States in their full constitutional vigor, while insisting that the Federal Government shall perform in the highest efficiency only the functions assigned to it by the Constitution.

The Denver convention will declare the traditional devotion of the Democratic party to the Union as the sheet anchor of our peace at home and abroad, and to the States as the best and only safe administrators of all the affairs which touch the citizens most nearly.

Most emphatically should the Democratic platform repudiate and denounce the heresy that defense of the rights which clearly are reserved to the State is an attack upon the Central Government. It is the balance between the two, wisely adjusted by the Constitution, and well preserved through all our history, that has made the United States what they are.

It is one mission of the Democratic party in this campaign to rebuke and to discredit the dangerous practice, to which too many Republican leaders have become addicted, of denouncing as hostility to the General Government all assertion of State rights. The best Americanism is that which jealously guards the powers of both factors in our dual system.

The Nebraska Democratic platform has some wise and forceful words upon this subject. They may with great propriety be strengthened at Denver. — St. Louis Republic.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McChesney, who have been here on a visit to relatives, left today for Seiling, Okla., where they will make their home. They were re-elected to manage the public schools of Hamburg, Ark., but declined, having decided to retire from that business. Prof. McChesney has purchased an interest in the Bank of Seiling and will hold the position of cashier. The bank has a capital of $12,000 and is located in one of the growing young towns of the new state. Prof. McChesney will add strength to the institution to which he has aligned himself and will make Seiling a good and progressive citizen. — Odessa Democrat.

Dave Ball's literary bureau is just now in a state of active eruption and the overflow is filling the mails with a choice variety of reasons why the Pike county man should receive the gubernatorial nomination at the hands of the Democracy. If it accomplishes nothing else the bureau will greatly increase the sale of stamps at the St. Louis post-office. — Bates County Democrat.

Listen To This!

It is all off in the Democratic gubernatorial campaign. Cowherd is running backward. Ball is the man the boys in the brush are for. Cowherd has no support but the county bosses, the corporation lawyers, the franchise holders. Cowherd is a Rolla Wells sort of Democrat, which is a Bob Ingersoll Christian. Cowherd is licked right now. — St. Louis Mirror.

Druggist Takes His Own Medicine

The man who sells remedies for most of the human ills, and hears day after day the opinions of people who have used these remedies, naturally comes to know the superior from the inferior, and when the time comes that he has to decide on which remedy he will take, he of course selects the one he has heard the most praise of. His own opinion, coupled with that of his customers, ought to go far in convincing the layman that the remedy the druggist selects is the best in the field.

J. M. Hawkins, a Druggist of Mount City, Kan., has sold medicines for a great many years, and when finally he himself began to suffer from stomach trouble he had no hesitancy in deciding which remedy on his shelf he would take. It was Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Now, after having given it a good test, Mr. Hawkins writes us that it justified his high opinion and he is cured.

It was the same with Druggist Kennedy, of Lexington, Ill. He was not very robust, often had constipation and such troubles, so, going on what his customers who had used it told him, he took Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and has been a well man ever since.

There is no better remedy on the shelf of any druggist or in all materia medica than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin for obstinate constipation, dyspepsia, indigestion, flatulency, biliousness, diarrhea, jaundice and other liver troubles, whether the disease is in an infant, child, woman or man.

It is the best family laxative. It is gentle and effective, pleasant and sure. The proprietors guarantee it absolutely both as to purity and results to be expected. Usually one or two doses will bring about a complete change for the better, and as it is only 50 cents or $1 a bottle the sure relief can be had for a few cents. Buy a bottle so you can see what it will do for you.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Goodfast yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative So Good and Sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." This product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.
